What's Happened?

Stretcherz is recalling certain toys following the identification of a potential contaminant in the sand used within a limited number of products.

Testing has shown that the sand-like material inside some products may contain trace levels of asbestos. The overall risk is considered low, but because asbestos should not be present in any amount, we are recalling the affected items as a precaution.

While we have received no reports of harm, we are taking this action out of an abundance of caution and in line with our commitment to the highest standards of safety and quality.

What should you do?

Please ensure these products are stopped being used immediately & out of reach from children

Any customer who has purchased the product is advised to retain the packaging and return the product to a B&M store where you will receive a full refund.
